What is NPM?

The National Association of Pastoral Musicians (NPM) is a non-profit organization for professionals, volunteers, and anyone who cares about the liturgical life of the Church.

Why join NPM?

Becoming a member of the National Association of Pastoral Musicians is quick, easy, and provides a myriad of benefits to its members:

- An online, members-only portal with direct access to exclusive content and more!
- Online Liturgy Courses; Virtual Workshops: Cantor Series
- A network of over 6,000 pastoral musicians across North America
- Annual national convention with award-winning speakers, composers, and publishers
- A subscription to both Pastoral Music Magazine and The Pastoral Notebook newsletter

Who can join NPM?

Musicians in all forms of church ministry: organists, pianists, cantors, choir directors, campus ministers, youth ministers (just to name a few).

Clergy and all those who care about the liturgical life of their faith community.
